

REVUE ROUMAINE DE PHILOSOPHIE

Vol. 65

Issue 1

January–June 2021

CONTENTS (in English)

CIORAN. THE 110TH ANNIVERSARY (Guest editors: Constantin Zaharia, Marius Dobre)

MARIUS DOBRE, Foreword: An Outline of Cioran's Philosophy	7
SIMONA MODREANU, Cioran and the Time of the Fall	15
INGRID ASTIER, Cioran – the Contrary Man.....	35
CONSTANTIN ZAHARIA, Hypocrisy and Selflessness. About Irony in Cioran's Work.....	41
LAURENT MATTIUSI, Cioran's Tragic Thought: Heraclitus Pushed to the Limit.....	57
GIOVANNI ROTIROTI, Freud's Meeting with Heidegger in the Early Writings of the Young Philosopher of Sibiu	71
ION DUR, GABRIEL HASMAȚUCHI, Cioran and the "Epistolary Mania"	79
PETER MURVAI, Cioran and the Paradox of the Utopia.....	99
AURÉLIEN DEMARS, The Meaning of Fatality: Fate and Chance according to Cioran	113
HORIA PĂTRAȘCU, Cioran – A Philosopher of Redemption. Procession and Conversion in La chute dans le temps	125
ȘTEFAN BOLEA, Toward the 'Never-born'. Mainländer and Cioran	145

PHILOSOPHICAL NOTES

ARNAUD LALANNE, Leibniz, Reader of Jansenius' Augustinus	157
---	-----