

REVUE ROUMAINE DE PHILOSOPHIE

Vol. 66

Issue 1

January–June 2022

CONTENTS (in English)

THE PHILOSOPHICAL ENTANGLEMENTS OF CHARLES SANDERS PEIRCE'S SEMIOTICS (Guest editors: Titus Lates, Alin Olteanu)

Introduction (Alin Olteanu, Titus Lates)	7
TONY JAPPY, Three problems for Peirce's metaphor	11
SUSAN PETRILLI, AUGUSTO PONZIO, Meaning, creativity, and the interpersonal relation. A semioethic approach	29
IONUȚ UNTEA, Peirce, Welby, and the convergence of semiotic and significs	65
VICTOR D. POPESCU, Unlimited semiosis or endless redescrptions? Peirce, Eco, and Rorty on the limits of interpretation	85
ALEKSANDAR FEODOROV, A community as/in interpretation: a pragmatic-semiotic approach to the problem of community	105

HUMAN BEING AS LIVING MIRROR OF THE WORLD IN LEIBNIZ (Guest editor: Adrian Nita)

PAUL RATEAU, The invention of the "machines of nature": Physics and Theology	117
ADRIAN NITA, Man as a spirit – understanding, reason, and spiritual membrane in Leibniz's metaphysics	141
JUAN A. NICOLAS, Vital principle in Leibniz and its transposition in J. Ortega y Gasset	159